

St. John of God Hospital, Guildford-road, Belmont, which will be completed in about a month. The complete design comprises four sides of a hexagon, but the present building has only about half of what is proposed for the future. The architects are Messrs. Hennessy, Hennessy and Co., and the contractors are Messrs. A. T. Brine and Sons.